7.1.8: Describe the Institutional efforts/initiatives in providing an inclusive environment i.e., tolerance and harmony towards cultural, regional, linguistic, communal socioeconomic and such other diversities (within 500 words).

Inclusive Curriculum: The curricula of the university includes diverse perspectives, authors, and voices representing a wider social spectrum of the society to provide a well-rounded education that reflect the global community with inclusivity as the base.

Cultural Exchange Events: Various cultural exchange events, such as festivals, cultural showcases, and language clubs, create opportunities for students to learn about and immerse themselves in different cultures.

Anti-discrimination Policies: The institution has strict anti-discrimination policies in place, and cases of discrimination in any form or bias are addressed promptly through established grievance mechanisms as stipulated by the UGC.

Hostel Accommodation: Allotment in the hostel is done without any discrimination. i.e. students from all the communities, religions, regions etc., are given equal opportunities to get hostel accommodation. Amenities and facilities are kept open for all the categories, communities, sections of the students.

Equity: In Central University of Karnataka, equity is ensured through fair access to resources, opportunities, and support services regardless of background, promoting inclusivity and equal participation in academic and extracurricular endeavours.

Community Extension: CUK conducted community extension training program for 720 adolescents on Personality Development at the Akbar Hussaini School in Kalaburagi on November 19th, 2022.

University Fest (Ankur): University hosts Ankur annually, fostering tolerance and harmony among students of diverse backgrounds. Through cultural showcases and sports competitions, Ankur celebrates diversity, promoting inclusivity and teamwork. Additionally, the Innovation fest encourages solutions to societal challenges, welcoming contributions from all socioeconomic backgrounds. Structured competitions at various levels provide a platform for diverse perspectives. Ankur's ethos celebrates cultural richness, reinforcing the university's commitment to a harmonious and tolerant community, where every voice is valued. It's a testament to the university's dedication to nurturing an inclusive environment that embraces differences and fosters collaboration among its students and faculty.

NAME OF THE EVENT- International Mother Language Day 2023

DATE OF THE EVENT- 21st February 2023

On 21st February 2023, DEPARTMENT OF LINGUISTICS (SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES AND LANGUAGES), CENTRAL UNIVERSITY OF KARNATAKA, organized International Mother Language Day. International Mother Language Day is intended to celebrate and encourage the preservation of all the languages of the world. This celebration is an opportunity to reflect on the role, languages and dialect play in our lives and the importance of preserving linguistic diversity in the world and in our communities. Every language is unique and it gives insight into one's culture and interpretation of knowledge.

The first part of the event started in the morning around 10AM with the guest speaker, Prof. E. Annamalai, who joined online through google meet. Prof. E Annamalai is visiting Professor, Historical Tamil Grammar and Dravidian Linguistics, University of Chicago(USA). He talked on the topic THE BIOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY OF THE MOTHER TONGUE.

The second part of the program started in the noon, around 12PM. The session started with the Karnataka state anthem followed by Vande Mataram song. After this, the program was officially inaugurated by lighting the lamp. It was inaugurated by Prof. Battu Satyanarayana, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Central University of Karnataka, the Chief Guest for the occasion Prof. Bhimrao Bhosale Panda, Prof. Basavaraj P. Donur, Dean and Registrar (School of Humanities and Languages) and Dr Manjulakshi , Coordinator, Department of Linguistics. Then the resource person, Prof. Bhimrao Bhosale Panda was honoured by our Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Battu Satyanarayana and the Coordinator Dr Manjulakshi ma'am honoured both the Hon'ble VC and the Dean and Registrar Prof. Basavaraj P Donur.

After this honouring session, the Coordinator of Department of Linguistics, Dr Manjulakshi ma'am delivered her introductory address followed by the addressing speech of Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Battu Satyanarayana. Then the Guest Speaker Prof. Bhimrao Bhosale Panda was invited to speak on the topic SYSTEMIC FUNCTIONAL LINGUISTICS- THEORY ON APPLICATION. Prof. Panda is the Head of Centre for Applied Linguistics and Translation Studies, HCU. A question-answer session was held after this followed by the concluding remarks by the Dean, School of Humanities and Languages, Prof. Donur.

After that, prize distributions, for different competitions organized by the department, was held. The prizes were distributed by Prof. Panda. Thus the event came to an end with vote of thanks by second year student Ms Nayantara. Cultural event took place from 4PM onwards with the arrangement of refreshment for everyone.

Cultural Values and Norms in Intercultural Communication

Online Special Lecture on 'Cultural Values and Norms in Intercultural Communication' was conducted on 5th July 2022 at 12:00 pm. It aims to comprehend the distinctions between the behaviours, dialogue, and worldviews of individuals from diverse cultural backgrounds. Understanding the cultural ramifications is essential for success in an international setting because culture has a significant influence on people's business practices. Dr. Samskrati Gulvady, assistant professor in the Department of Mass Communication at the University of Technology and Sciences in Salalah, Oman, provided support for the presentation as a specialist with a deep understanding of international communication and its various perspectives.

Dear Madam,

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication is overwhelmed by your special lecture delivered on 5th July 2022.

I take this privilege to appreciate and thank you for the splendid presentation which exposed students to the subject area that was deliberated from different approaches to cultural values in cross-cultural and intercultural communication.

The lecture was well appreciated by the students as it had cleared many of the queries they had in mind.

Looking forward to listen to your scholarly lecture again.

Regards,

Dr. K. Karthik
